AGREEMENT

B. Use of the NWSA logo and trademarks:

4. The NWSA logo, the "NWSA" acronym, and certain additional trademarks registered by NWSA (collectively, the NWSA Marks) are the exclusive property of the National Wireless Safety Alliance. They may not be used without prior written permission. Any unauthorized use will be grounds for legal action.
5. NWSA encourages the authorized use of the NWSA Marks. NWSA does not charge for the use of the NWSA Marks in an authorized manner if previously approved in writing by the National Wireless Safety Alliance. Logos are available electronically in various formats, upon email request, free of any service charge.

6. NWSA desires to facilitate the authorized use of the NWSA Marks, through approved means, to promote “preparation courses” for candidates to take NWSA certification examinations.
7. Should your application to be listed as an open practical test site be successful, the following requirements shall apply to your use of the NWSA Marks, or any of them, in any form, including, but not limited to, any promotional literature, websites, and other documents.
  - a. In the event you elect to use the NWSA Marks, or any of them, in any form, and in order to avoid confusion of the NWSA Marks with any other program not in compliance with, nor under the control of, the National Wireless Safety Alliance, the company or organization, if a “for hire” company offering services (such as training) to third parties on a commercial basis, shall offer no other national telecommunications tower technician certification program. This shall not preclude a company from conducting training or issuing its own independent certificates of completion of training, or providing employer-sponsored qualification programs.
  - b. For each intended use of the NWSA Marks, the company or organization shall submit a written proposal including a copy of any proposed artwork and related text. Any use of the NWSA logo may not be larger or more prominent than the logo of the applying company. The company/organization must receive written permission for each different/updated use from the National Wireless Safety Alliance.
  - c. In each intended use of the NWSA Marks, the company or organization (below, “Company”) shall place the following wording in a prominent position on the promotional literature or other document: “Company endorses the national certification program offered by the National Wireless Safety Alliance (NWSA), and provides training to prepare candidates for NWSA examinations.”

C. Further terms and conditions:

8. By signing below, on behalf of the company or organization submitting this application, you agree to the terms and conditions set forth herein regarding the listing of the company or organization on the NWSA web site, as well as any use of the NWSA Marks.
9. The company or organization submitting this application and the authorized person signing below (collectively, “Applicant”) acknowledge that reapplication to be included in the list of practical exam test sites posted on the NWSA web site is required on a calendar year basis.
10. Applicant will not disclose, nor cause to be disclosed, to anyone outside of NWSA, any confidential information obtained as a result of participation in the NWSA certification program, including, without limitation, the content of any examination.
11. Because NWSA examination pass rates can fluctuate and change over time, Applicant agrees not to make any reference to numerical pass rates on any printed or electronic materials, or by any other means, including content on the Applicant’s website.
12. Applicant agrees that, to the extent it makes any reference to NWSA examination fees in any printed or electronic materials, or by any other means, including on the Applicant’s website, any reference to such fees shall be accurate, clearly spelled out, and set forth as separate from any fees charged for training by the Applicant or persons other than NWSA.
13. Applicant agrees not to make, and not knowingly to allow any other person to make, any material misrepresentation or omission of fact in any document submitted to NWSA.
14. Applicant represents that Applicant is not acting on behalf of any company or organization other than the one submitting this application, and is not acting to circumvent, or to assist in any attempt to circumvent, a prior NWSA suspension or revocation.
15. Applicant agrees to conduct any and all related business with NWSA, any Examiner, clients, and candidates in a professional manner, according to accepted codes of business conduct.
16. Applicant understands that the failure to meet any of the terms of this agreement at any time may result in any listing as an open practical exam test site being denied, suspended or revoked.

AGREEMENT FOR LISTING AS AN OPEN PRACTICAL EXAM TEST SITE ON THE NWSA WEBSITE

17. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and any dispute shall be finally resolved by the courts of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
